DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

The specification is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to provide an enabling disclosure of the invention. For instance, it is not clear how the upper buckling screw 73 and the lower bucking screw 74 limit the range of motion of the lamp seat 60?

Although the specification states that the lamp seat is at the upper dead point of the movable range when the lamp seat reaches the upper bucking screw, and the lamp seat is at the lower dead point of the movable range when the lamp seat reaches the lower bucking screw, it is not clear how the lamp seat can be able to reach the upper bucking screw 73 especially the lower bucking screw 74 is higher than the lower bucking screw? In view of drawing figure 2, it would appear that the lamp seat reaches the lower bucking screw 74 and is stopped by the lower bucking screw, the lamp seat can not be able to further reach the upper bucking screw 73. The drawings do not illustrate the contact point of the lamp seat reaching the upper bucking screw 74 and the contact point of the lamp seat reaching the lower bucking screw 73.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 3, 6 and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities: In claims 3 and 6, there is no proper antecedent basis for "the center". It should be changed to --a center--. In claim 7, there is no clear antecedent basis for "the bolt". It should be changed to --the fastener--. Note that the term "bolt" is first introduced in claim 5. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. Claims 1 to 9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, the essential structural cooperative relationships of elements have been omitted, such omission amounting to a gap between the necessary structural connections. For instance, it is not clear how merely turning the rotating shaft allow the lamp seat to generate an axial movement in a range of an upper dead point and a lower dead point without proper mounting cooperation with other elements such as the sleeve, the screw of the loading disk ...? Note that the rotating shaft is merely located on one side of the lamp seat. Merely locate the rotating shaft on one side of the lamp seat will not allow the lamp seat to generate an axial movement ...

Claims 2 to 9 depend on rejected claim 1 and as such are also rejected.

4. Claims 1 to 9 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

5. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

Borders et al., Hallings et al. (4,916,597) and Hallings et al. (4,878,156) are cited to show other pertinent adjustable surgical lamp handles for controlling the projection scope of the surgical lamps.
